

Careers at Dawn International - Trader.

Duties will include but not be limited to -

The buying and selling of meats and other foodstuffs and other commodities as deemed commercially acceptable by management on an ongoing basis.

Making and maintaining direct communication with both Suppliers and Clients, mainly by telephone and e-mail.

Maintaining the ancillary administration associated with such trade.

Travel to Clients premises and Trade Shows.

Duties will be varied and of a nature which will require a great deal of initiative and responsibility.

Commercial decisions will be made through ongoing consultation with Management and it is understood that a flexible attitude to other duties is required e.g. to commence trading in a new product line, travel, administration, etc.

A recognised Business qualification and or fluency in a second language are a distinct – but not necessary – advantage.

Training will be provided at all levels.

Salary is negotiable – depending on “experience” of the candidate.